ABSTRACT

This index of approximately 300 short educational films released in 1978 follows the rules of the Preserved Context Index System (PRECIS). The system is structured so that each entry supplies a mini-abstract of the item being indexed, the age level of the intended audience, and the title of the film. This index is said to be one of the first applications of the PRECIS system in the United States. (CHC)

The following pages provide a subject index to approximately 300 short films released in 1978. Many of them were shown at the 1979 American Film Festival sponsored by the Educational Film Library Association, and further data about them may be obtained from the Festival Guide.* For the remainder, names of producers or distributors and running times may be found in the Index to 16MM Educational Films, 7th ed. (NICEM), the Educational Film Locator, 2nd ed. (Bowker), or the rental catalogs of university film libraries.

This index was compiled following the rules of the PREserved Context Index System (PRECIS). That system is unique in that each index entry is structured so as to supply a mini-abstract of the item being indexed. It is hoped that this has been achieved here in significant measure.

The letter symbols indicate the intended audience:

P	Primary
E	Elementary
J	Junior High
S	Senior High
C	College
A	Adult
